BRYAN, TEXAS, NOV. 9, 1909.

It is better to be crop rich than to be land poor.

Hamilton is the Sirius of A. and M.'s football Orion, while Choc Kelley and Ward are the Rigel and Betelgeux respectively.

Ella Wheeler Wilcox says every true woman feels in her heart a desire to make herself attractive to men. This is doubtless true but very few have the courage to confess it.

One of the Waters-Pierce attorneys was fined $500 for knocking a man down in a Saint Louis court last Friday. Ain't it awful how these poor corporations are persecuted?

A New Mexico editor declined the offer of the governorship of that territory. If Texas could swap a dozen of her would-be governors for that man it would be a splendid trade.

Our sympathies go out to those Houston debutantes who arrayed themselves in orange and white and paraded with Varsity students yesterday. We Bryan folks have a tender spot in our hearts for widows, or near widows.

The Corpus Christi Caller fractiously says: "Judge Lovett, the new president of the Southern Pacific, is a Democrat and so is B. F. Yoakum, but we doubt if either 'has been working at it' very much for several years past." And there are others, including several who remain in Texas.

The Fort Worth Star-Telegram never overlooks an opportunity to say a good word for A. and M. College. In a paragraph on farming it works in this neat compliment: "Texas has much to learn about farming before it can prosper as it should. It takes prosperous farmers to make a prosperous state. One good thing about farming in Texas is the fact that the A. and M. college is turning out educated farmers although many of the boys do have to live in tents."

FOR A COUNTY POULTRY ASSOCIATION.

It is proposed to organize a Brazos County Poultry Association, having for its object, the education of the people in the raising of better poultry and more of it.

As a means to this end, an annual poultry show is contemplated. Many other counties are holding shows with from 500 to 800 fowls on exhibition, and are more than paying expenses. Notably, Hillsboro, Cleburne, Waxahatchie, Corsicana, McKinney and many others.

If all those who are interested in the movement will drop me a card within the next few days, a meeting can be called for organization and plans for the future discussed.

I have written this call at solicitation of a number who are now raising thoroughbred fowls.

C. E. JENKINS.

Bryan, Texas, Nov. 4.

Rev. G. A. Foster returned to Waco last night where he is attending the Southwestern Theological Seminary. He has resigned the pastorate of the churches at Steep Hollow and Bethel, and accepted a call to Normangee for half time, Henry Prairie, one fourth time, and will continue to preach at Providence one fourth time.

A Town Where People Never Die.
A special to the Dallas News from Lebeau, S. D., says:

At a meeting today at noon leading citizens protested against the burial in or near Lebau of L. T. Perkins of Athens, Texas, who was killed two miles from here yesterday when an automobile turned turtle. This is the first death in Lebeau's forty year's history.

Public spirited citizens wish no graveyard here, and began a contribution to send the corpse to Mellette, S. D., 140 miles east on the Minneapolis and St. Louis railroad, to the nearest undertaker.

Shortly before noon the Millette undertaker came here to prepare the body for burial here. This was taken to mean that relatives living near Athens, Texas, would have the burial here.

The undertaker said Perkins' relatives told him to proceed to Lebeau and take charge of the body. Perkins' relatives are expected to arrive Friday or Saturday noon.

Burial here will be contested.

WARM TIMES IN THE SIXTH.

The congressional situation in the sixth is likely to develop a warm fight before the affair is over. Dr. Geo. H. Tabor of Bryan is an avowed candidate and our young friend W. C. Davis seems in a very receptive mood, with strong tendencies to shy into the arena. Congressman Hardy is already working on his fences. His recent Cameron speech don't seem to have made him the friends he anticipated, and there you are. It is yet anybody's race.—Navasota Examiner-Review.

Elijah And the Ravens.

And the word of the Lord came unto him, saying, Get thee hence, and turn thee eastward, and hide thyself by the brook Cherith, that is before Jordan.

And it shall be that thou shalt drink of the brook; and I have commanded the ravens to feed thee there.

So he went and did according unto the word of the Lord: for he went and dwelt by the brook Cherith, that is before Jordan.

And the ravens brought him bread and flesh in the morning, and bread and flesh in the evening; and he drank of the brook—1 Kings, XVII.

Of all the ready-to-wear clothes made in America, those made by but one house were chosen as best fitted to enter an Englishman's home. They are the

Stein- Bloch Clothes

Made in Rochester, N. Y.

The man who selected them from among their contemporaries is H. G. Selfridge, whom the late Marshall Field of Chicago called "the best merchandiser in America." Selfridge knew his business when he invaded the heart of London with a mammoth American plan department store, and bearded the British Lion in his very den. His store has made a tremendous hit in England.

Our clothes are made by the same tailors, are identical in style and material, and bear the same STEIN-BLOCH label. They are ready for you to see—to try on here.
